UCLA Department of Mathematics Graduation Celebration
June 12, 2016
9:00 – 10:30 a.m.
Court of Sciences

Welcome
William Duke

Guest Speaker
Stephen Godfrey
(Executive Vice President of Wells Fargo Bank)

Presentation of Departmental Awards

Presentation of Daus Award
Dillon Zhi recognized by Richard Elman

Presentation of Sherwood Award
Jing An & Hao Li recognized by Andrea Bertozzi
Man Cheung Tsui recognized by John Garnett
Yichen (Peter) Chen recognized by David Gieseker
Pax Kivimae recognized by Michael Hill

Presentation of Outstanding Actuarial Science Student Award
Chen Liang recognized by Patricia Boyle

Presentation of Pacific Journal of Mathematics Dissertation Prize
Nicholas Cook, Kaitlyn Hood & Jianfeng Lin recognized by Robert Brown

Presentation of Ph.D. Degree Candidates
William Duke and Mario Bonk

Recognition of Achievements
Specialization in Computing Students recognized by Christopher Anderson
Mathematics/Education Interns recognized by James Ralston
Departmental Honors Students recognized by David Gieseker
Departmental Scholar Students recognized by David Gieseker

Presentation of Bachelor's Degree Candidates
William Duke and David Gieseker

Closing Remarks
William Duke

Stephen Godfrey earned his B.S. in mathematics from UCLA and an MBA from UCLA Anderson. Godfrey is executive vice president and the head of Foreign Exchange eCommerce for Wells Fargo Bank. Based in San Francisco, he oversees the foreign exchange services electronically delivered to clients and the business-side sponsorship of the supporting systems. Godfrey has over 25 years of financial service experience - prior to joining Wells Fargo, he was a managing director at Bank of America Merrill Lynch. He is currently a member of the Math Chair's Council at UCLA lives in Palo Alto with his wife and children.