WINTER QUARTER 2006

BISKUP, Marek

MATH 275C, LEC 1 – Stochastic Processes

9-9-9

My opinion of 275C applies to the entire 275 sequence – it has easily been the most engaging and interesting sequence of classes that I have taken at UCLA.

9-9-9

Great lecturer. Only complaint is not enough examples. We spent lots of time discussing theorems but it would have been nice to know in what contexts they are applicable.

9-9-9

Biskup's lectures are well organized and easy to follow.

9-5-8

Thanks for an excellent three quarters! Marek is always well-prepared for lecture and has beautiful board work.
