

UCLA Summer 2018 DRP Application:

This summer we are running a small pilot version of a directed reading program. To apply, please fill out this form and email it to drp@math.ucla.edu. Alternatively, you can submit your answers written in an email or a separate document. Applications are due July 16, 2018.

Many questions are optional, but keep in mind we hope to select a wide range of participants with respect to degree progress, background, interests, and demographics, and your answers may help us do that. Also keep in mind that if you are accepted into the program, we will use the information on this document to pair you with a graduate student mentor.

Basic Information

Name:

UCLA ID:

Email:

Expected date of Graduation:

Mathematical Background and Interests

Please list the college-level math courses you have taken.

(Optional) Feel free to share any other relevant mathematical background

What broad areas of math are you interested in? (You may select multiple items.)

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Algebra | <input type="checkbox"/> Differential Equations |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Analysis | <input type="checkbox"/> Geometry/Topology |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Applied Math | <input type="checkbox"/> Logic |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Combinatorics | <input type="checkbox"/> Number Theory |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> Probability |

(Optional) If you have more specific mathematical interests, or an idea for a specific project, please describe them here.

Personal Statement and Reference

Please write a paragraph or two describing why you are interested in participating in the directed reading program. (max. 250 words)

(Optional) Feel free to list any interests (academic or otherwise) outside of math

Please provide a faculty reference (a professor or TA is sufficient).

Name:

Email:

(Optional) Demographic Survey

(Note: One of our goals is to accept a wide range of students. The information in this survey may be used to determine acceptances and pairings.)

Sex/Gender:

Race/Ethnicity:

US Citizen or Permanent Resident? Yes No

First Generation college student? Yes No

Transfer student? Yes No