

UIC Model Theory Seminar, September 21, 2004
Uncountable categoricity for homogeneous metric classes

Alex Usvyatsov
Hebrew University, Jerusalem

We prove the analogue of Morley's categoricity theorem for classes of elementary (in the right sense) submodels of a homogeneous complete metric structure (with a countable language). In particular, this covers metric compact abstract theories (CATs), not necessarily Hausdorff or open.