

UIC Model Theory Seminar, December 5, 2006

Theorem 5.1 revisited

Gareth Jones
McMaster University

Theorem 5.1 in Wilkie's exponentiation paper gives a method for constructing points on varieties defined by certain smooth definable functions. I will generalize this to locally polynomially bounded structures. This leads to a description of the definable functions in such structures. This is joint work with Alex Wilkie.