

FINAL EXAMINATION

The examination will take place on Wednesday, December 13 from 3:00 to 6:00. Instead of the two locations used for the midterm exams, all students should go to

MOORE 100

The exam will consist of 10 problems, each worth 20 points.

The examination will cover the following sections of the text: Chapter 2, Sections 2, 3, 5 and 6; Chapter 3, Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7 and 8; Chapter 4, Sections 1 through 5, 7, 9 and 10; Chapter 5 (all) and Chapter 6 (omit Section 4).

The front page of the examination will contain the following information:

Instructions Read each question carefully and answer it in the space provided. Do all your work on the examination paper, scratch paper is not permitted. There should be sufficient space to write the solution to each problem. However, if you do need more room, you can continue the problem on another page but, if you do, write “continued on page x” so the grader can find it. Calculators and computers may not be used for this examination, nor may you use any books or notes except for two 3 by 5 index cards of notes. You will be given three hours to complete the examination. If you finish before the time is up, you may place your examination paper in the location indicated by the proctors and leave.

The solutions to the exam problems will be posted on the course Web site on December 14. Your score on the final, along with information on the median final exam score, and your course letter grade will be posted on your myUCLA Web site as soon as the course grades are submitted to the registrar. Final examination papers are not returned to students, however, you may make an appointment with Professor Brown during the Winter quarter to review your exam.

Professor Brown will hold extra office hours from 1 to 2 on Tuesday, December 12 and from 11 to 12 on Wednesday, December 13.
