The Spring Into Research Program scholarship supports freshmen, sophomores, and first year transfer students interested in learning about the opportunities available for undergraduate research at UCLA.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Current UCLA freshmen, sophomores, and first year transfer students
- Cannot be a current or previous recipient of a research program scholarship through the Undergraduate Research Centers or AAP
- Interested in pursuing undergraduate research in humanities, arts, or social sciences

APPLICATION:

- Online application with research interests, personal interests and goals
- Online application is available at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SpringIntoResearch2017>

Incomplete applications will not be reviewed. All materials must be submitted by the application deadline. Please contact the Undergraduate Research Center with any questions.

REQUIREMENTS (OF PARTICIPATION IN THE PROGRAM):

- Attend the Spring Cornerstone Workshop series: <http://www.ugeducation.ucla.edu/urhass/workshops.htm>
- Attend portions of Undergraduate Research Week: <http://urweek.ugresearch.ucla.edu/>
- Complete program-related assignments pertaining to Undergraduate Research Week presentations
- Submit a research proposal for a project in the humanities, arts, or social sciences by the end of the spring quarter
- Identify a prospective faculty mentor for the project

AWARD INFORMATION: Spring Into Research program recipients receive a $350 scholarship at the end of the spring quarter.

IF YOU ARE CURRENTLY RECEIVING FINANCIAL AID: The Spring Into Research Scholarship will be part of your overall financial aid package. This means that if you receive an award, the Financial Aid office will adjust your financial aid package to ensure that you do not exceed your financial aid eligibility. If such an adjustment is made, loans and work-study award are reduced first, prior to grant or other scholarship reductions.
