The California Department of Insurance (CDI) was created in 1868 as part of a national system of state-based insurance regulation. With hundreds of billions of dollars in yearly direct premiums, California is the largest insurance market in the United States and among the largest in the entire world.

CDI employs actuaries to test and oversee insurer solvency and to review rate filings and non-forfeiture values. Regulatory actuaries ensure compliance with state laws and regulations by checking rate development in property and casualty, health, and long term care insurances.

Recruitment: CDI regularly offers several actuarial internship opportunities for aspiring students during the summer. Apply online for the “Student Assistant” position when it appears here in December/January. Full-time positions are posted as needed and do not follow a specific schedule. Details on how to apply are available on the attached slide.

The company collaborates with physicians, hospitals, and other healthcare providers to deliver comprehensive care and support for its members, aiming to create a positive impact on broader public health outcomes.

About Farmers: In 1928, two men shared a dream of providing a quality insurance product at a reasonable price. In the decades that followed we've grown and adapted to meet the changing needs of Americans. But one constant has remained: We have an unwavering commitment to uphold our founding ideals to provide industry-leading products and first-rate services to the customers we're privileged to serve.

Different Eras, Same Exceptional Service: Farmers not only prides itself on helping you plan wisely for the unexpected, but also on helping restore order when it occurs, so you can keep moving along the road of your life's plans.

In 1959, a Farmers customer wrote us a letter of surprised gratitude when his car battery was replaced just an hour after it was stolen. A letter from a couple in 2002 wrote that their Farmers agent and claims adjuster "were exceptional in their handling of our grief, what we needed to do, and helpful in many other ways." That same year, when Hurricane Rita struck Beaumont, Texas, Farmers sent 300 agents to assess damages while policy holders were evacuated. Farmers also donated $100,000 for the city's emergency operations center and two megawatt generators that restored power to Beaumont. Whatever year or decade a disaster occurs, you can count on us to be there for you.

Today, our companies make up one of the country's largest insurers of vehicles, homes and small businesses and provide a wide range of other insurance and financial services products.

Farmers is proud to serve millions of households and businesses across all 50 states and the District of Columbia. Farmers offers insurance and financial products through multiple companies, brands, and distribution channels, including a network of Farmers Insurance® exclusive agencies, tens of thousands of independent agents, and direct sales online and through company call centers. Our products are produced and serviced by tens of thousands of Farmers employees across the United States, including an exceptional national claim service network.

The Farmers Exchanges are three reciprocal insurers (Farmers Insurance Exchange, Fire Insurance Exchange and Truck Insurance Exchange) owned by their policyholders, and together with their subsidiaries and affiliates comprise the Farmers Insurance Group of Companies. Farmers Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries, in their capacity as attorneys-in-fact, provide administrative and management services to the Farmers Exchanges.

Our story began with the simple goal of insuring the vehicles of rural farmers but as the world changed, so did we. Visit our timeline for a tour through the decades of Farmers.

Our Ambition Statement: We're proud of more than 90 years of serving our customers and excited about the future as we continue to evolve to meet their needs. Our ambition is to: Be the leader in delivering peace of mind, innovating for customers whenever and wherever they need us.
