Horizon Actuarial Services, LLC

Horizon Actuarial is an exciting new company with deep historical roots. Around 2008, the larger consulting firms decided to exit the "Taft Hartley multiemployer" (union employee benefits) consulting business. A group of us from Watson Wyatt Worldwide (now known as Towers Watson) found this as an opportunity to spinoff and start a firm. Thus, with 23 associates, Horizon Actuarial came to be. Since that time, we've had enthusiastic reception in the market, and we've more than doubled in size.

Small, nimble, resourceful – we take pride in producing valuable service to our clients with both tried-and-true practices and originaive ideas.

What drives us?

- Complete commitment to the highest quality work and service
- Honesty in all dealings
- Collaborative approach to serving clients
- Creativity in addressing client problems and issues
- Respect for clients and colleagues

Because our core work is to serve our clients, Horizon Actuarial stays at the forefront of actuarial and regulatory developments – whether it's collaborating with other organizations to publish reports that inform our industry, encouraging regulatory change where it's needed, or working with other experts to propose retirement security solutions for the general public on a policy level.

Because of our size, we operate and work as a family. But by no means do we shy away from big complex problems. We love large challenges and working together to tackle them. We also look out for one another. In fact, since we've started, we haven't had a single associate leave for a competitor.

Because we know the importance of career development, we provide comprehensive training (including a generous study program) to help you learn the business and rapidly progress toward attaining actuarial credentials.

About Horizon Actuarial's exam study program: We cover exam fees. We cover study materials. We pay for study time. And we celebrate with you when you pass (including via compensation).

Horizon Actuarial is always looking for candidates with the right qualifications and best fit for the organization. In addition, we generally hire on an as-needed basis and actively recruit for positions when they become available. Therefore, if you apply with us and we do not have a position available at that time, we will keep your resume on file until a position that matches your experience and interests becomes available. Please note that most entry-level opportunities are in our Washington DC area office.

There may be opportunities for experienced professionals in all three of our principal offices, in Los Angeles, Washington DC, and Atlanta.

Horizon Actuarial Services launched in October of 2007 when, after providing actuarial and consulting services to multiemployer plans for more than 50 years, Watson Wyatt Worldwide (now known as Towers Watson) announced that it would exit the Taft-Hartley consulting business in order to focus on its corporate consulting business. For Horizon Actuarial's experienced consulting actuaries and analysts, the event provided an exciting opportunity to create a new firm that is dedicated to providing services to U.S. multiemployer and Taft-Hartley plans, a niche within the employee benefits industry. Horizon Actuarial officially began serving clients on February 1, 2008.

Horizon Actuarial proudly serves approximately 100 clients, including a dozen pension funds with more than $1 billion in assets. We provide services to health and welfare trust funds, defined benefit funds, and defined contribution funds. Our clients include multiemployer funds in many trades and in various parts of the country. While our firm is new, many Horizon associates have decades of experience working with each other and understand the dynamics of multiemployer plans. We view our role as consultants whose job is to protect the rights of the plan participants by keeping all of the Trustees, both labor and management, informed of relevant issues.

We take pride in employing creative ways to add value. Over the years, we've played integral roles in pushing regulatory relief for multiemployer plans, publishing articles and reports that help our clients – Trustees – make informed decisions to protect the benefits and rights of their participating employees, and introducing the "USA Plan" to Congress (a plan designed to provide millions of workers without access to employer-sponsored retirement plans a helpful vehicle to save for retirement). A number of our associates also volunteer their time, even assuming roles, in organizations such as the Society of Actuaries and the American Academy of Actuaries.
