

Tiling with Integers

Prepared by Matt on May 13, 2026

Problem 1:

Suppose that we have a rectangle R which can be tiled by smaller rectangles r_1, \dots, r_n such that each r_i has at least one integer side length.

Show that R has at least one integer side length.